INSTRUCTIONS: Stringent action against Learners for adopting unfair means and possessing Mobile Phones during IGNOU Examination

The December, 2025 Term-end-Examinations of IGNOU for ODL and Online Programmes (Pen & Paper & CBT Mode) is going to commence from 1st December, 2025 and will be concluded on 14/01/2026 across the country and abroad for the enrolled students of the various programmes of the University. As per the University Regulations, learners shall follow the rules and regulations of the University and shall not bring Mobile Phones or any Electronic/Digital Devices at the Examination Centers or have in his/her/their possession or under his/her control or within his/her reach, whilst he/she is taking the examination. The following points may must be noted and followed strictly:

- Bringing of mobile phones into the examination hall, physical possession of the Mobile Phones is strictly prohibited and is a punishable act. If any student is found with a mobile phone in the examination hall, it will be treated as a UFM (Unfair means) case. Therefore, Students are advised not to bring mobile phones at the Examination centre. In case any mobile phone is lost from the examination centre, it will be the sole responsibility of the mobile phone owner.
- Further any electronic device, including smart watches and electronic dictionaries, mobile phones or a standard scientific calculator unless allowed are also not permitted. If a mobile phone is found, the phone will be confiscated from the examination and the student will be subjected to disciplinary action. The use or attempted (as per instructions on the question paper) use of a mobile phone (or any other electronic device) is strictly prohibited and treated as a serious breach of the examination regulations.

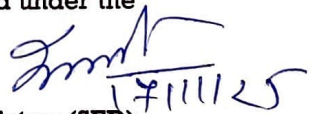

Further all the examinees should note that bringing or using a mobile phone in an examination hall is a severe offence classified as an "unfair means" or "malpractice" by the University, leading to disciplinary actions for mobile phone use in the examination centre. To avoid severe penalties and to uphold academic integrity, students must adhere to strict guidelines, rules and regulations of the University. The following actions performed by any student during the course of his/ her examination shall be termed as unfair means/misconduct by the candidate:-

1. No candidate will be allowed to enter in the examination room /hall unless he/she displays the admit cards issued to him/her by the University along with his/her ID Card/Aadhar. The admit card of all the learners will be verified during all the sessions of the examinations.
2. Possession of a mobile phone, whether used or not, and other electronic items, such as smart watches, and Bluetooth devices will be grounds for penalization as an offence. Mobile or any electronic communication device confiscated from the student in the examination hall shall be impounded as evidence for unfair means against such student. The safest course of action is to not bring your mobile phone to the examination center at all. No arrangements for safekeeping are guaranteed at the examination centers.
